Dana Cherski

Stella's Cafe & Bakery
Human Resource Management Diploma

"I felt that human resource management was a perfect link between psychology and business, and an area in which I could apply what I learned in the restaurant industry and at school into my future career."

Dana, a UWinnipeg BA (Hons) psychology graduate, was working as a server at Stella's Café & Bakery. A chance conversation about PACE inspired her to enrol. After graduating from PACE in 2016, Dana was promoted to Director of Human Resources with Stella's, a position that sees her recruiting, training, on-boarding, and developing policies for the company's seven Winnipeg locations.

Paul Carrick

Trainer, Facilitator, Therapist,
Province of Manitoba
Human Resource Management Diploma

"I felt it was imperative when intervening and consulting with workplaces, managers, and human resources to have depth and breadth in human resource knowledge."

Having worked in the field of therapy and conflict resolution for over 20 years, he decided to pursue a PACE diploma in human resource (HR) management to respond to the growing requirements of HR-related knowledge and legislation in various workplaces.

Alexandra Acevedo Arteché

Information Security Analyst,
Great-West Life
Network Security Diploma

"I was working as a security professional in Bogotá, Colombia and I wanted a course that would complement my experience."

Alexandra researched a number of Canadian programs online, but was attracted to PACE's Network Security Diploma because it provides a solid foundation in network security, was condensed, and allowed her to earn a management certificate at the same time.

MORE THAN AN EDUCATION

PACE programs are packed with extras to provide a comprehensive educational experience.

We understand that learning and life experiences go hand-in-hand! We work hard to make your time at PACE educational and enriching through professional development and personal growth opportunities.

We have a number of professional building activities, such as resume hub evenings, industry networking opportunities, industry speakers, professional association memberships, a mentorship program and work experience. Our programs are taught by accomplished professionals in the field who impart their real-world knowledge to provide students with a competitive edge. PACE's connections to industry leaders, associations, and the local community offer additional benefits to students and often provide a bridge to potential job opportunities.

BENEFITS OF PACE AT UWINNIPEG

At PACE you know you are getting a quality education backed up by The University of Winnipeg's commitment to academic excellence. We pride ourselves in providing our students with learning that is engaging, real-world driven and unique.

Whether you're seeking to enroll in a diploma or certificate program, individual courses or seminars, PACE offers a range of flexible learning options to help you advance.

Courses are scheduled through the year and typically begin at the start of the fall, winter and spring terms. Part-time programs run mainly in the evenings, on weekends or online with options for daytime offerings as well.

Fast-track your program completion or take the time you need. Either way, PACE will help you get ahead.

Natasha Havrilenko

Public Relations Coordinator,
Royal Winnipeg Ballet
Public Relations, Marketing &
Strategic Communications Diploma

"Further education was the next necessary step for my career. And being able to return to the working world in 13 months was appealing."

Natasha recognized that the current job market requires flexibility and broad knowledge in public relations, marketing, and communications. She obtained a BA in Rhetoric, Writing and Communications, but felt that a PACE diploma would complement her degree. She believes the PACE program was instrumental in providing her a well-rounded education that reflects today's job market.

Taiwo Olabode Kehinde

Project Analyst,
Manitoba eHealth
Project Management Diploma

"The best part of a career in business analysis and project management is it allows me to work with people from all backgrounds and walks of life. There are different challenges every day. I love it."

Taiwo had completed a master's degree and MBA in the United Kingdom when he heard about UWinnipeg's PACE diploma from a friend. As soon as he completed his program, he landed his dream job as a project analyst with Manitoba eHealth — and he could not be happier.

ONLINE & HYBRID LEARNING AT PACE

You need learning where and when it suits you, which is why PACE offers flexible, personalized learning options. You can choose from in-class, online, and hybrid (blend of in-class and online) courses knowing that the commitment to quality in program content and expert instruction is consistent across all formats.

These courses allow you to take charge and better manage your own learning experience, making it easy for you to learn on your own and to adapt your studies to a busy schedule.

Chuck Lewis

Owner,
Mr. Electric
Human Resource Management Student

"The old school approach to management hasn't been working for a while now, and this program has really helped me change my mentality about how I run my business and interact with my employees."

When Chuck considered going back to school, he knew he needed something that would fit his busy schedule. Part-time programs at PACE allow him the convenience of maintaining his busy work schedule, while taking classes in the evenings and on weekends.

Jessica Bloomfield

Human Resources
Government of Manitoba
Human Resource Management Diploma

*"Our class became close as a family, and establishing those relationships
has helped me throughout the program."*

Jessica was attracted to the full-time Human Resource Management Diploma program because of the applicability and depth of the course material, as well as the internship opportunity.

PATHWAYS TO LEARNING AT PACE

Did you know that you may be able to transfer previous course work towards credits at one of the many programs at PACE? Many people come to PACE already holding an undergraduate degree or college credential.

People also come to PACE without any previous education and ladder their PACE certificate, diploma, or course work towards earning a degree.

Whether adding career finish to previous education or beginning an educational journey, we help you tie all the pieces together and make all of your education count!
